Education and Lectures: The Museum's education and family programs make up a significant part of our educational mission. We see every third-grade student in the Pleasanton Unified School District (1074 students). Students first engage with a wide variety of artifacts that relate to Pleasanton History in our history gallery and then go on a historic walking tour. We also offer specialty school tours, scout tours, and camp programs which served 1209 students in 2022. We also offer a monthly preschool reading and craft program that attracts 20-25 children and caregivers each month. This program is also offered in the afternoon once a month for adults with developmental disabilities (10-15 participants monthly). We do an intergenerational Family Day 4 times a year during the summer months and in 2022 we had 3 additional family days to celebrate special community events such as Diwali and Gus the Horse coming to the museum. In 2022 our family days served 2,375 participants. We also offer walking tours, museum on wheels lectures, and a discussion lecture series for adults and seniors (398 participants in 2022). Finally, we provide exhibit-related programming that changes each year depending on the exhibits. In 2022 our exhibit-related programming included artist demos during our Pleasanton Art League show which served 135 participants. One of the largest educational programs done by the museum is our Ed Kinney Lecture Series, which is a series of monthly presentations from January through October where presenters portray historical characters in the Chautauqua style of performance. The presenter does a 45 minute monologue and then answers questions as the historical character for about 30 minutes before stepping out of character to answer questions as the scholar that the historical character

To review the Form 900, the Executive Director worked closely with the museum Treasurer to gather information needed to compile and complete the forms and schedules. Once the forms are completed with its schedules and attachments, a hard copy is shared with each Board member individually and collectively at the first meeting possible before the filing deadline. If there are any inconsistencies or points to be addressed those are done before the document is filed both in e-file and standard form for the state of CA .

On an annual basis all Directors, Officers and employees of the ALVHS are provided with a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy and an annual Conflict of Interest Disclosure statement. This statement must be completed and returned to the ALVHS office by the February Board meeting each year for review by the Executive Committee. Should a member of the Executive Committee be the subject of a possible conflict, that member will recuse themselves from the discussion at all levels. The minutes of the meeting would reflect this abstention. Conflict disclosures shall be treated as confidential and disclosed to others only to the extent necessary for review and resolution. All new Directors must complete the disclosure statement prior to assuming their duties. If a Board Member, officer or employee should notify the President or any other member of the Executive Committee of the facts surrounding the conflict in writing, the President shall refer the matter to to the Executive Committee .

The process used to establish compensation for James DeMersman in 2022. The Board of Directors, upon the directions of the Executive Committee, approve all compensation arrangements. The Committee must make comparable comparisons using several available resources, including the CA Museum Association's Salary Survey for museums in CA. Those comparisons must be a part of the full report and resolution that is presented to the full Board at their January meeting where the budget is approved. Through this resolution the Board maintains a written and electronic record of the terms of compensation. The terms of Sarah Schaefer's compensation used the same sources as Jim Demersman's compensation decisions, but the hiring committee increased the salary due to increased cost of living statistics. The board voted on the compensation as part of the hiring process.

The Board of Directors has a written policy that requires that a copy of the 990 be kept in the front office so that it is available upon request. If an individual would like a copy of the document, there is a small copying charge to cover the cost. The 990 is also available on Guidstar.com for those who are interested. The Articles of Incorporation and By Laws are kept in a file in the front office for inspection upon request. The organization keeps a Board meeting binder available that consists of Board meeting minutes, financial statements and other associated reports for those who would like to request to view them.
